MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT - Evening Report

[Omitted here is discussion unrelated to Global Issues]

3. The International Standing Committee on Environment -
This morning I chaired the first meeting of the International Standing Committee of the Cabinet Committee on Environment. Secretaries Hardin, Stans, Hickel and Romney, Drs. Seaborg and McElroy and Russell Train attended, along with representatives of a number of other interested agencies. I used the occasion to stress the importance of the international aspects of environmental problems and the relationship with U.S. efforts. I set a target date of 1972 for the production of specific tangible results in the international field. Rus Train reviewed progress in organizing the Council on Environmental Quality; Pat Moynihan
